Break at Shawneetown, Naples and Other Points; River 40 Feet Wide at Paducah

TOWNS BETWEEN CAIRO AND NEW MADRID FLOODED

Houses Submerged; 10,000 Acres Farmland Inundated; People Marooned

CAIRO, Ill., April 3.—Every able-bodied man is working feverishly strengthening the levees. The situation is regarded as growing worse, the city's safety depending on whether or not the levees hold. The river has reached fifty-four and a half feet, the highest in history.

A relief boat has started for Shawneetown, where the situation is reported as critical. Naval reserves to-day rescued forty-eight soldiers of the Sixth Missouri regiment, who were marooned at Bird's Point, Mo., following the breaking of the levee.

The village of Mound City, eight miles north, is fighting the flood desperately. The light plant is flooded. The steamer George Lee arrived to-day from Memphis, reporting every town between Cairo and New Madrid, Mo., as flooded. The steamer brought several refugees.

The main levee at Shawneetown is still holding although the east and west levees have been submerged. No fatalities have been reported. An unconfirmed report says the levee at Medley, Mo., forty miles south, has collapsed. Reports from Paducah say the river is forty miles wide there. Many business houses and residences have been submerged. Mechanicsburg, a suburb of Paducah, was inundated. The war department ordered a fleet of steamers to rescue the people in this section. It is reported many people are trapped on the house-tops at O'Brien's Landing, Mo.

The river rose slowly today. Forecaster Lindley predicted that it will pass the 55-foot stage tomorrow.

NAPLES, ILL., UNDER WATER—10,000 ACRES OF FARMS FLOODED JACKSONVILLE, Ill., April 3.—The Illinois river levee at Naples nearly broke in three places today, flooding most of the town under four feet of water.

The levee at Meredosia also broke inundating ten thousand acres of farm land. One hundred people are reported as homeless at Bairdstown.

RELIEF WORK PROGRESSES $40,000,000 IS NEEDED

DAYTON, April 3.—Members of the flood relief commission, and Miss Mabel Boardman of the Red Cross, personally inspected the flood district here today. It is believed it will require $40,000,000 to make the city habitable.

The work of clearing the debris is progressing slowly under the direction of Major Rhoades. Business houses are forbidden to pay more than two dollars daily for laborers. Major Rhoades has distributed $20,000 among two thousand men impressed for work.

REFUSE BRANCH OF WEATHER BUREAU

Government Officials Refuse to Place Orange County on Important Map

REPRESENTATION OF SOME REAL VALUE

Business Matters That Receive Attention of Chamber of Commerce Directors

The establishment in Santa Ana of a branch of the United States weather bureau, has again been refused by the officials at the national capital, on the ground that the insertion of the city's name in the printed list and for other technical reasons, makes the proposition impracticable. That a weather bureau branch in this city, the only one in Orange county, would be of general benefit, is admitted; but there are no funds available, and so far as the Washington, D. C., officials can see, no prospects of such an institution being located here, at least not for the present.

This information came officially last night to the directors of the Chamber of Commerce when they met in regular session. Vice President J. D. Thomas was the presiding officer, and Directors H. J. Forgy, Ed L. Vegely, A. H. Lyon and H. T. Rutherford were in attendance, together with Secretary J. C. Metzgar. The latter had been corresponding with Fred A. Carpenter, vice chief local weather man, whose headquarters are in Los Angeles. Mr. Carpenter hopes a way can be found so that Orange county shall appear on the weather map.

It can readily be shown that there are several cities on the daily weather bulletin that could be dropped without detriment to the purposes of the weather bureau services. It is argued that Orange county is entitled to this representation for many reasons, among which is the fact that the county occupies a different meteorological position than any other section of the southland; that the climatic conditions here are different from any other section of Southern California. Pasadena, Ontario and other towns are pointed out as performing no meteorological service to the general public by reason of their daily appearance on the weather bulletins, while on the other hand such a report from Santa Ana would be valuable. There is no disposition to object to the towns named appearing in the weather report, but they are referred to as refuting the government's position.

The Eureka Chamber of Commerce requested the Santa Ana organization to interest itself in a good roads movement that will be known as the Pacific coast movement. A general meeting is to be held at Eureka in August next.

Dr. A. M. Roberts, the theatrical man, was last night elected a member of the Chamber of Commerce.

A request from the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce to endorse the workmen's compulsory compensation bill, was not granted.

REBELS DELAYING ATTACK ON NACO

DOUGLAS, Ariz., April 3.—The main body of the rebels around Naco withdrew southward today with their destination unknown. They left 400 men to guard Gen. Ojeda and his federal defenders of the town. During the day Gen. Ojeda sent out several scouting parties, apparently to learn the disposition of the forces of the rebels.

The Cananea Consolidated Copper company's smelters have been forced to close on account of failure to receive fuel because of interrupted railroad traffic. Three thousand men are there. Jose Cananea, a wealthy Sonora rancher, who arrived here today, said the rebels had seized his cattle on his refusal to pay them fifty thousand pesos.

Charles W. Streeter of San Bernardino, Cal., has been taken to Campas from Naco for trial on the charge of killing a Mexican at Naco where he has been held for three weeks incommunicado. He managed to get word to American Consul Simpich asking him to assure him fair trial. Consul Simpich took the matter up with the Sonora authorities.

LAST CALL FOR SUBSCRIPTIONS IS ISSUED

Santa Ana's Benefit List Will Be Closed This Coming Saturday Night

Thanks Extended to All Who in Way Contributed to the Successful Show

The Santa Ana subscription list for the benefit of the flood sufferers will be closed next Saturday night. It is hoped that all persons who wish to make any contribution will do so before that time, so that Santa Ana's list will be correct and complete.

"We hope that everybody will please take notice that we wish to close our list by Saturday night," said Secretary Metzgar of the Chamber of Commerce, at noon today. "We will close the list at that time and arrange for sending the money to the Red Cross Society at Washington, D. C., the very first thing next week."

It was announced by the committee that had charge of the benefit entertainment at the Grand Opera House yesterday afternoon, that the receipts totaled $294.35, including $26.25 received for which no tickets were taken up.

The committee wishes to extend its thanks to all persons who helped in the arrangements and in the presentation of the show, and especially to Frank Musselman, C. S. Kelley, J. W. # DR. FRIEDMANN TO GIVE UP FORMULA

NEW YORK, April 3.—Anticipating a favorable government report on his tuberculosis serum treatment, Dr. Friedmann announced that within a week he will give the secret of his turtle serum to the medical profession.

"I shall not tell the world how to make the liquid for injection," Dr. Friedmann said, "as that would be dangerous to the public, but I will arrange through the regular channels so that all reputable physicians will be able to secure the serum, and will be able to treat every case of tuberculosis in the country."

Dr. Friedmann explained that his secret lies in the method of transferring the extract from the turtle culture of bacilli into the liquid for injection. He says that in the process of transfer several foreign elements are used.

"There can be but one official report," Dr. Friedmann said. "All the physicians who have watched the treatment here admit that the patients have improved. It was the same in Germany."

Among the events is "Now," a costume dance; a pony ballet; another dance, entitled "Then," and a playlet. After the dramatic offerings will come more "follies." Among the patronesses are Mrs. A. J. # THREE YEARS AT HARD LABOR

English Suffragette Sentenced; Says Will Quit Prison Soon, Dead or Alive

MRS. PANKHURST MAY BE FIRST SUFFRAGE MARTYR

Police Powerless to Check Demonstration by Women as Sentence Was Passed

LONDON, Apr. 3.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst was sentenced to three years at hard labor for inciting her followers to dynamite Lloyd George's country home. The women present hissed the sentence. The jurors returning the verdict asked Justice Lash to show mercy.

Mrs. Pankhurst received the sentence without any show of emotion. Before sentence was passed she made the following declaration:

"Whatever sentence may be imposed I will not submit. I will start a hunger strike immediately. I will leave the prison dead or alive at the earliest possible moment."

The police were powerless to check the demonstration occurring in court upon the pronouncing of the sentence. The militants jeered and hissed and later marched from the court singing and shouting.

Addressing the jury, Mrs. Pankhurst declared that "No woman is ever tried by a jury of her peers as is her right. I pleaded not guilty because I am not wicked or malicious though I accept the full responsibility for the attempt made to blow up Lloyd George's home."

MRS. PANKHURST MAY BE FIRST MARTYR TO SUFFRAGE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Mrs. Josephine St. Germaine Steadman, an English militant suffragette, predicted that Mrs. Pankhurst will be the first martyr to the suffrage cause. She believes she will not survive the sentence to hard labor. She said: "Mrs. Pankhurst is one of the most wonderful women in the world. She gave herself up to the mockery of a trial, willing from the first to be a martyr for English women."

The Heinzes were married in 1910. A son was born to them in December, 1911, and a year later Mrs. Heinze sued for divorce, a decree being granted late last year. She was an actress and before her marriage to Mr. Heinze had been the wife of Charles H. Henderson, a broker, from whom she obtained a divorce in 1906.

WIRELESS WORKERS MAY STRIKE FOR WAGE ADVANCE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Wireless operators on ships plying outward from the Golden Gate expect to know before the end of the week just what to expect from the Marconi Wireless company in the way of advances in salary.

Talk of a strike has become common and it is reported that the company is recruiting strikebreakers from other cities on both coasts. First operators now receive $40 and $45 a month for a thirteen-hour day, second operators receiving $35.

The signing of the bonds was begun this afternoon by Chairman T. B. Talbert of the Board of Supervisors, and Cal D. Lester, county auditor.

When the signatures have been attached the county clerk will affix the seal of the county on each bond. The bonds are yellow in color and each of $1000 denomination. The money for the bonds will be received probably next Monday.

Kelley of the Cadillac garage of this city for $84.50. This check brought to at least a temporary end the prisoner's career of crime, and in which he had gained the reputation of being the king of bad check passers.

Drueckner decided to take his medicine and not go through the semblance of making a legal fight for his liberty. He knew his case was hopeless and he was also without funds. While he stood before the court this morning to receive sentence, Drueckner said he was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., 41 years ago; that he was an Iowa university graduate and had taken a classical course; that he knew two or three trades including bricklaying and carpentering; that he had been married and was the father of a boy 8 years of age; that his wife had left him and that he was ignorant of her present whereabouts, although he had learned from a mutual friend that she had divorced him and was taking good care of their child. He denied that he had been convicted of any felony charge although admitting that he had been arrested on several occasions on misdemeanor charges.

SANTA ANA IS CREDITED WITH CRACK SQUAD

The Los Angeles Tribune today said:
"With the southern interscholastic track season practically finished, the preps are turning their attention to the diamond game. Santa Ana high has an unusually fast squad this year. The Celery Growers have played several practice games, and have emerged victorious in every contest. Bill Warren, the Santa Ana twifter, is playing his last year in interscholastic baseball, and judging by his work this year, will turn out to be one of the most effective mound artists in the South this season."

Deputy District Attorney Koepsel informed the court that he had not expected the pronouncement of sentence in the case today, otherwise he would have had witnesses on hand who would testify that Drueckner was a dangerous character; that he had fled many business men in Orange, San Diego, and Los Angeles counties.

After reviewing the general features of the case, Judge West informed the prisoner that there was little excuse for such an able-bodied man quitting honest work to make a decent livelihood. "But it seems as if you are one of those kind of men who get the idea that they are a little smarter than the others who have operated the same sort of game," said the judge wearily. "You are evidently one of those men who think they can succeed at the game where others have failed, and cannot profit by their example. People who have gone the pace you have gone may reform, but it will take a long time if they do. I could send you to prison for fourteen years, but I will make your sentence ten years in the state prison at San Quentin."

Drueckner never said a word and at the conclusion of the court's order he bowed his head, accepted his hat from Jailer Dean of the county bastille, and with him retraced his steps to the cell from which an hour earlier he had been taken for sentence.

Drueckner is a rather prepossessing man, well built and the picture of health.

SECRETARY OF NAVY DANIELS PLEASED

Praises Team Work Prevailing In Navy—Watches Initial Practice of Wyoming

OLD POINT, Va., April 3.—Secretary Daniels of the navy department and five other members of President Wilson's cabinet stood on the bridge of the dreadnought Wyoming yesterday while her battery of twelve 12-inch guns roared for the first time at battle practice in salvo. At the first salvo half the target more than four miles away was torn to bits and before she had fired the ninety-six shots allowed her there were a dozen holes in the portion left standing.

Secretaries Daniels, McAdoo and Houston and Postmaster-General Burleson, equipped with powerful glasses, watched the shots eagerly and after the firing was over examined the target at close range.

Miss Eleanor Wilson, the President's daughter, and the wives of several members of the cabinet watched the practice from the battleship Idaho.

Secretary Daniels returned to the ground last night on the Wyoming to witness night firing from the four 12-inch guns of the Minnesota at a towed target, an experiment never before tried in the American navy.

Mr. Daniels said of the practice: "The whole operation showed to me a very high state of efficiency and I attribute this to the teamwork that prevails from the admiral to the newest recruit."

"In the event of war, this teamwork," he said, "would be the deciding factor in bringing success to the American forces."

WOMEN VOTERS OF NEW MEXICO WIN FOR CANDIDATES

SANTA FE, N. M., April 3.—Women voted in New Mexico for the first time Tuesday in an election held for school directors.

In almost every community from one to three women were elected on each board, five being elected all together.

The legislature last January extended the franchise to women of the new state in school elections and no less than a hundred of them were elected to office in the elections Tuesday. In some instances as many as three women were named on a ticket. When the legislature meets next January they will ask for full franchise. The legislature of Arizona has already granted franchise to women and the electors approved it as an amendment to the constitution last fall.

DOWN WITH THE SPOILS SYSTEM

The spoils system in politics is doomed in California. The merit system will supplant it, marking a most important stride forward in the government of the state.

Efficiency in public service instead of in party service will hereafter be the standard. Politics as a game merely to land the jobs, and the debauching influences of such a system are at an end in California. The real governmental problems will hereafter be dealt with by the people freed in great measure from the hindrance of the office hunt.

Charles Wesley Reed, a well-known attorney of San Francisco, discussed at a Progressive luncheon recently the Civil Service Bill pending in the legislature. He pointed out that the Progressive platform demands the merit system and declared there was every reason to believe the measure would be enacted into law.

Governor Johnson is an active advocate of the bill and Mr. Reed spoke in high praise of him. "All civil service reform advocates," he said, "recognize the fact that it is Governor Johnson who has made such a law possible. He is willing to put out of his control the patronage of the various offices that are appointed by the governor and give a patriotic example of devotion to the interests of the state. I believe that the enactment of an adequate civil service law will round out the administration of Governor Johnson and demonstrate anew to the people of California the greatness of their chief executive."

Mr. Reed made a powerful plea to destroy the doctrine that "to the victor belongs the spoils." He pointed to the fact that for the 10,000 jobs the national Democratic administration has to give out, in the displacement of opposing party men, there are 130,000 clamoring candidates to fret the statesmen at Washington while they are attempting to attend to the important business of the national government.

President Wilson tried to keep the pest of office-seeking out of the White House, protesting that he needed all his time for handling the broader propositions. But the president found it impossible to enforce his ban, for members of congress were not to be denied.

There is strife and bitterness among the Democrats in California over the sharing in the $200,000 annual patronage in federal offices. For every place there is an average of a dozen applicants. Real issues which are of vital concern to the people have been forgotten. Not what will Wilson do on such and such a policy is the question, but to whom will he give the jobs is what the Democrats of California now have uppermost in their minds.

In addition to the debauching influence on politics, the elimination of the party patronage principle will tend greatly to increase the efficiency of public service. The proposed law provides a rigid merit system. Qualifications will determine selection for a place. After appointing a merit system will be maintained to keep up the standard of work.

"The bill now being considered by the committee of the houses of the legislature," Mr. Reed explained, "provides for three commissioners, appointed by the governor, but their term of office expires at different times, with a salary of five thousand dollars per annum.

"The difficulty of removing men under civil service who are not competent has led to many suggestions. We have incorporated in our bill a scheme to create efficiency records. Under rules laid down by the civil service commission the heads of departments must keep records of the work of their subordinates. If a man fails to do his work properly, his own record will inevitably point to this fact and be indisputable evidence of his shortcomings. No more important provision of the law exists than this invention, which comes by way of Chicago. If we can make civil service men efficient and prevent their appointment from falling into the hands of politicians, we will have an ideal law.

"How far should civil service men indulge in political activity? Not at all, says Roosevelt. A severe restriction in our bill met with little favor at Sacramento and was stricken out. If civil service men may run for office, join clubs, and become active in political campaigns, it seems to me that they might easily build themselves into a political machine. I therefore feel that all active political work should be forbidden civil service men, as well as all solicitation of political funds from them.

"An interesting question is whether all men subject to civil service, when the law takes effect, should be retained in office, or examinations be held to fill all offices. I believe those in office should be retained, because—

"(a) It makes the bill easier to pass;

"(b) It makes all in office friends instead of foes of the new system;

"(c) Nobody is hurt by retaining those who are in office at the time the law takes effect, while a great deal of distress would be occasioned by turning out the men who are earning a living in that fashion.

"One of the leading Democratic senators told me that he was for civil service, but against a system that kept all the fellows in jobs who were friends of the administration. I suppose he would feel differently about the matter if he were not in the minority.

"There are some legal difficulties in the way of the new law, because of the constitution, which says that employees may hold during good behavior under a merit system. Keeping all the state force in office will make them friends of the new law, instead of enemies. The San Francisco new charter was emasculated as to the civil service law by a combination of the deputies in the county offices who were about to be displaced. They contended that the charter which could provide for the number and compensation of deputies in the county offices could not provide for their qualifications. The supreme court sustained their contention in one of the queerest decisions ever handed down by a reactionary court."

When the hundreds of positions on San Francisco's waterfront are placed under civil service, as is proposed, a complete upheaval of politics in this city will result. When the struggles between the ins and outs for those places are eliminated there will be a much desired ending of the proposition that these jobs are the chief issue of all politics. The state government will be relieved of what invariably becomes a most exasperating problem. No state administration has yet been able to deal with the clamor for waterfront jobs without becoming the object of abuse frequently undeserved, and of much wicked misrepresentation.

Socialist Answers Mr. Wright

Editor Register:—Having read Rev. Paul Wright's article on Historical Socialism, I feel that it would be wrong to let some of the statements he made go unanswered. He said there are as many views of Socialism as there are men inside and outside the ranks. Now this is where he starts wrong and why he holds such a confused idea of Socialism.

The principles of Socialism are simple, and with so many good books to be had, there is little excuse for anyone assuming to speak on the subject not knowing these principles.

Socialism proposes to do away with competition by substituting co-operation in every branch of industry, or in other words, Social Democracy, or in plain words, what we all use collectively shall be owned collectively, and what we use privately shall be owned privately.

There are four different phases of Socialism: Economic, political, scientific and ethical. Now the side that would appeal to Brother Wright would be the ethical side, as ministers' teachings are among ethical lines. Lawyers and politicians would take the political side, scientific minds the scientific side, and teachers of economy the economic side, while some minds grasp all sides.

As to open warfare on the present system, all socialists will plead guilty. Not only Socialists, but all other parties, seem to be in open warfare against the present unjust and corrupt conditions, as shown by the commissions appointed to investigate conditions relative to child labor, working women's wages, white slave traffic, cause of prostitution, the arson trust, the steel trust, and all other kinds of trusts. The capitalist has come to a point where he can hardly stomach his own by-products, and if he probes far enough he will find it is the profit system that causes most of these troubles.

Mr. Wright hints at Socialists being atheistic. Now, if believing in co-operation, justice between man and man, freedom, democracy in its fullest sense, and the brotherhood of man is atheistic, most of us would proudly plead guilty. Why accuse the Socialists of atheism? Does it not exist in all parties to about the same extent, and would indeed not be a better word to use, as there are more infidels than atheists in the world?

As to the class struggle, I am pleased to see that Mr. Wright recognizes that the cause is the private ownership of the resources and instruments of production and distribution, for most people come to believe in Socialism as soon as they reach this point of view.

Mr. Wright next says tyranny and oppression are the only soil in which Socialism will grow. That is an open admission that we have these industrial conditions in the whole world, or Socialism would not be a world-wide movement, and being a Christian, is it not his duty to do his part in helping to change these conditions?

He further says each country gets the kind of Socialist it deserves. If that be true, then why condemn the I.W.O.'s and their methods, as oppression and denial of the ballot has developed this kind of Socialism?

As to Robert Owen and Fourier, they were Communists, not Socialists, and industrial conditions have advanced beyond the communistic stage. And as to modern Socialism, Karl Marks, Engels and later Edward Bellamy were the leaders.

It seems strange that any Christian can believe that his Creator created all the oil for one man, all the coal for another, all the steel for another, and so on down the line, or that He intended that any man should live from the sweat of another's brow.

Brother Wright is surely thinking and studying and will come out right, as all people do who really want to know about this great question of Social Democracy.

Yours respectfully,
CHARLES H. WILSON.

SEVENTY-FIFTH BIRTHDAY

S. W. Smith Happily Surprised With Sumptuous Dinner Given In His Honor

S. W. Smith, 521 Wellington avenue, old-time citizen and business man of Santa Ana, reached his seventy-fifth birthday on April 1 and this royal milestone in life proved to be no joke, but one of the most pleasant of the many birthdays that he has celebrated in a long and honorable existence. The ordinary congratulations and remembrances of the day were given as usual and in addition to these agreeable amenities, Mr. Smith was the recipient of a delightful birthday surprise at which his daughter-in-law, Mrs. W. H. Smith, of 1230 French street, was the hostess.

The affair was in the nature of a sumptuous five-course dinner served at noon, at which only men were guests. A few of the G. A. R. friends of Mr. Smith, who was formerly the revered commander of the Sedgwick Post, No. 17, were invited to the dinner and as they sat with him at the generously loaded table they had a royal time. Over the delicious viands, served invitingly on a table adorned with flowers and most daintily appointed, the old comrades chatted of days past and present. The affair was all the more pleasant because it was such a complete surprise to Mr. Smith, the honoree. Not soon will the pleasure of the occasion be forgotten and the day that marked the three-quarters-of-a-century milestone of Mr. Smith's life will be one for the old comrades to recall again and again as they meet at the post campfires or in the walks of daily life.

Postponed Civics Meeting

The meeting of the Civics Club which was to be held next Saturday at the city hall has been postponed to Saturday, April 12, on account of the County Federation of Women's Clubs meeting to be held at Anaheim on Saturday next.

Prof. E. H. McMath will be the speaker for the Civics meeting on Saturday, April 12.

Ladies Canton Met

The regular meeting of the ladies of the Canton held at L. O. O. F. hall yesterday afternoon was well attended, proving to be successful especially in a social and intellectual way.

Following the business session the characters of the women of the Bible were discussed by the members. Mrs. Uttley, leader of the literary section of the club, read the story of the life of Rebekah and the good qualities of this beautiful Jewish woman, were dwelt upon by the Canton, and the mantle of charity found in the words of Plato, "God made the beautiful and may thine eyes behold the good in everything save sin," was thrown over all that might have been displeasing. The Mother of Samson, the Strong, will be the subject of the next study.

After the club adjourned all present were invited to the Dragon to partake of refreshments served in the balcony, with Mesdames W. W. Chandler, J. C. Clarke, A. C. Black as hostesses.

For Mrs. Daniels

Mrs. W. L. Bird entertained Tuesday a few Indiana friends in honor of Mrs. Daniels of Evansville, Indiana, who is visiting her niece, Mrs. Harry Dean.

Club Federation Convention

The recently formed Orange County Federation of Women's Clubs will convene in its first annual meeting in I. O. O. F. hall, Anaheim, on Saturday, April 5, with the Anaheim Elbell Club as hostess. The Anaheim club will hold its eighth annual meeting in connection with the federation meeting.

The morning session of the federation meeting will be devoted to general business and an open parliament, the session beginning at 10:30 o'clock. A basket lunch at noon will be enjoyed, the ladies of Anaheim serving coffee for the repast.

The afternoon meeting will include addresses by two out-of-town speakers, and other features of an interesting program.

The delegates from the four Santa Ana clubs belonging to the federation—Elbell, the Woman's Club, the Civics Club and the Art Study Club—have elected the following delegates and alternates to the Anaheim meeting:

Elbell—Mesdames C. F. Crose, W. L. Deimling, W. F. Lutz, I. D. Mills, C. W. Burns, W. L. Leiby, P. L. Tope, George S. Briggs, J. W. Bishop, A. J. Crookshank, J. A. Cranston, J. Roper, C. E. Lamme, W. S. Dear, Miss Mary Talbot; alternates, Mesdames F. H. McElree, J. H. Rankin, L. J. Carden, F. L. Austin, C. E. French, J. A. Wilkes, George Whidden, Mrs. Romer of Tustin, Mrs. Louise Scarborough, W. M. Smart, Harry Hanson, J. S. Wasser, J. E. Liebig, McCharles of Tustin, J. W. Bleck.

Civics Club—Mesdames S. M. Davis, E. M. Nealley, W. L. Grubb, W. B. Tedford, Jos. E. Tillotson; alternates, Mesdames G. H. Dobson, J. A. Wilkes, R. H. English, Charles S. Shaw, L. K. Strong.

Art Study Club—Mrs. Emory Ratcliffe, Miss Lena Moss Terrell.

Interesting Meeting

The Women's Missionary Society of the United Presbyterian church held an interesting meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. H. Prince, 702 Hickory street. Mrs. Prince was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. W. H. Stevenson, Mrs. Lea Warren, Mrs. C. G. Ramsey. The parlors were beautifully decorated with roses and ferns, and thirty-five ladies were present. Mrs. Will J. Lindsay led the devotional service. The subject was "The Chinese Church." In the absence of Mrs. A. J. Smiley, Miss Rosaline Kellogg told of the "Characteristics of the Chinese Christian Church." Mrs. F. L. Andrews read a paper on "Urgency of the Present Condition in China." The study of China is proving to be a very interesting one.

As the Women's Presbyterian was so recently held at this place, those present spoke of some part of the convention that especially interested them. The convention was the first of the kind held in the beautiful new church, which is so admirably arranged for such meetings. There were over one hundred delegates and visitors present and all were full of praise for the splendid reception accorded them by the Santa Ana society.

Mrs. Sampson read a card from J. S. Brotherton, the missionary supported by this congregation, which stated that she had sailed from India and would arrive here about May 12.

The society voted to do their part as a society to make Miss McCollough, a missionary supported by the churches along the coast, a life member.

As this is the beginning of a new year, the president read the following: "Reception, Mrs. M. McElree, Mrs. Smart, Miss Finley, Mrs. Smiley, Mrs. C. C. Collins, Mrs. Galoway; social committee, Adda Cowan, first division; Mrs. Stevenson, second division; foreign and home missions, Mrs. M. L. Tidball; decorations, Mrs. Getty; visiting, Mrs. Kellogg and Miss Finley; praise leader, Mrs. Dean; reporter, Mrs. Lea Warren; Ladies' Aid, Mrs. Will J. Lindsay; flowers, Mrs. D. L. Anderson and Mrs. Amos Cox.

A vote of thanks was given to the men who so kindly furnished autos for the ride for the convention delegates, and which added greatly to the entertainment of the delegates.

At the close of the meeting a very enjoyable social hour was held, during which most delicious refreshments of fruit jelly with whipped cream, cakes and coffee were served by the hostesses, assisted by Miss Frances Condon, Miss Grace White and Mrs. John Steffens. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. Fosdick, 124 Cypress avenue.

Alliance Meeting

The Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian church met in the church parlors yesterday afternoon for their usual monthly social. An unusually large number were present.

After a brief business meeting the ladies enjoyed a social hour together. Light refreshments were then served, consisting of sandwiches, fruit salad, tea and cake. Four young ladies present sang several songs. Miss Waugh and Mrs. Watry were the hostesses for the day. There were brief readings and quotations by a number of the guests. The ladies certainly had a good time and enjoyed the afternoon.

FOR THE MISSES TWIST

Misses Linna Yarnell and Rhea Shaul Entertained With Evening Party

Misses Linna Yarnell and Rhea Shaul were hostesses at a pretty evening party given last night in honor of Misses Violet and Dorothy Twist, the affair taking place at the Yarnell home, which was beautifully adorned throughout with artificial boughs of cherry blossoms. The pink color scheme was prevailed in decorations and refreshments. The letter "T" in white was used on score cards, frozen in the pink ices, molded on the pink mints and was sugar-embossed on the cakes.

Progressive games were played with Miss Laura Richards and Mr. Stevenson winning first prizes, the consolation going to Miss Elsie Lutz, who won on a cut from Miss Garner, and Robert Paine. A two-course collation was served on the card tables following the games.

Those present besides the hostesses and the honorees, Misses Violet and Dorothy Twist, were Misses Dixie Perkins, Wilhelmina Cavins, Gertrude Roper, Dorothy Dean, Ruth Visel, Elsie Lutz, Emily West, Merle Garner, Irene Smith, Marian and Jessie Gardner, Laura Richards, Pauline Jacobs, Messrs. Robert Paine, Floyd Knight, Homer Robinson, Harold Brown, Stevenson, Adams, Don Andrews, Hugh Gale, Richard Whitson, Howard Timmons, Morrison, Herbert Kendall, John Menges, John Jacobs, Bertram West, Nelson Visel.

Art Club Meeting

Mrs. O. S. Catland gave a comprehensive and interesting paper on "French and English Sculpture" before the Art Study Club last night at its meeting held with Miss Fannie Pease at the home of Mrs. Anna Gale. Mrs. Catland began with the Renaissance bringing the development of French and English sculpture down to the present period. The paper, well and thoughtfully prepared, gave opportunity for informing discussion. Some fine engravings were used in illustration of the topic studied.

During the business session of the club, which belongs to the State Federation, Mrs. Emory Ratcliffe and Mrs. Padgham were elected as delegates to the State Federation convention to be held at Fresno, April 23-30 and May 1. Mrs. Ratcliffe represents the club president, Miss Carter.

The Art Club endorsed the candidacy for president of Mrs. Ella L. Westland of Upland.

Light refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed after the program, during which time the object and advantages of the Dramatic League was presented by Mrs. Lawton as outlined by Dr. Clark in Los Angeles.

Accepts New Position

Principal V. L. Hughes of the Commercial High school has accepted a position as director of the commercial department of the Los Angeles Y. M. C. A. Professor Hughes enters upon his new duties on Monday next. While he has lived in Santa Ana Mr. Hughes has made many friends, who, while regretting his near departure from Santa Ana, will join in wishing him the best of success in his new position in the city.

Missionary Society

The ladies of the Missionary Society of the Methodist church, South, will hold their usual monthly meeting on Friday, April 4, at 2:30, in the church parlor.

This will be a regular business meeting and a good attendance is desired.

Pleasing Dinner Party

One of the most delightful among the small parties given recently was that enjoyed at the McElree home last night when Mr. and Mrs. McElree entertained the high school teachers of their son Maurice with a seven o'clock dinner. One of the noticeable features of this entertainment was the absence of formality, the guests being made to feel perfectly at home the moment they arrived.

Promptly at the appointed time the guests were ushered into the dining room, made charming for the occasion, the color motif being pink and green. A large silver bowl of pink Dutch roses with their beautiful foliage graced the center of the table, and at either end beautiful pink silk shaded candleabra diffused a soft radiance. The place cards, much referred to during the six-course meal, were of original inscription adorned with a pink rose. The prevailing colors were used in the macaroons, ices, cake and mints.

Witticism and jolly fellowship added greatly to the relish of the tempting viands, while sweet strains of the violin with piano accompaniment floated in softly from the living room where Keith Davis and Isabel Anderson were adding enjoyably to the entertainment.

What delightful company these teachers are when entertained in a hospitable home. With such a leader as Prof. McMath and a witty man like Ernest Crosier Phillips present, how could an evening's entertainment flag or grow tiresome? After dinner the guests simply amused themselves as they saw fit. Music and song, filling a large part on the program, were interspersed with character sketches such as Miss Petro, Mr. Phillips and Prof. McMath know how to render as perfectly as Mark Twain himself.

Those enjoying the hospitality of the McElrees were Prof. and Mrs. McMath, Miss Brockett, Miss Arnoldy, Miss Gall, Miss Terrell, Miss Petro, Messrs. Phillips and Hammond.

Norma Wingood, Pauline McElree and Maurice McElree assisted the hostess in serving the dinner.

"Electrical Demonstration"
The second section of the Elbell Household Economics department had an interesting "Electrical Demonstration" meeting at the home of Mrs. W. L. Deimling, 815 North Broadway, yesterday afternoon. The demonstration was preceded by roll call, answered with benefit. "Pet Economics" and the election of Mrs. Harry Hanson as president and Miss Ava Wells as secretary of the section.

The dining room was then opened revealing a stage. The section members, as the audience, occupied the living room. The performers in the demonstration were "Sunbonnet babies" and "overall boys," the latter being Masters Harlem Kittle and Clyde Walker, and the former little Misses Ruth Turner, Tersanna Deimling, Marjorie Kittle, Thelma Patton, Nannette Rowland. They were the actors who showed how the work of seven days of the week have been improved by electrical appliances. On "Old Tuesday" Tersanna Deimling and Marjorie Kittle with tiny wash-tubs and boards, did the "week's wash." The curtain rose again on New Monday, with the little ones working an electric motor washing machine. Tuesday, old and new, showed the difference between "sads" and the electric iron. Wednesday, old and new, sewing day was shown by Ruth Turner with hand-sewing and a sewing machine with electric motor attachment. Thursday was visiting day and all the little ones were at a tea party in just the "same old way," no improvement yet having been made in that old stand-by. On Friday, sweeping day, the vacuum sweeper contrasted with the broom, while on Saturday marketing was done by the telephone instead of with the basket as of old.

Monday morning the small boys were shown getting ready for church in modern appliances, while Thelma was curling Nannette's hair with an electric curler, and Sunday night the small girls and no boys in pajamas were lighted to bed by the electric light instead of the old time candle. It was all cue as well as being an instructive object lesson. The little ones gave a song with each day's work.

The afternoon's refreshments consisted of creamed eggs prepared in an electric chafing dish by Mrs. Kittle; toast browned on two electric toasters by Miss Powers; bacon cooked on an electric broiler by Miss Harrison; and coffee and tea made by Mrs. Mae Robbins in an electric percolator and tea pot respectively.

Mrs. Deimling as chairman of the committee consisting of Mesdames Deimling, Robbins, Kittle, Misses Harrison and Powers, deserves the major credit for the successful affair. The section is grateful to the following for the loan of electric appliances and machines: T. M. Neely, J. W. Lean and the Southern California Edison Co.

The Vandermast Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Asa Vandermast were host and hostess at a beautifully appointed dinner last night at 7:30 o'clock. Yellow and pink tulips were used in the dining room and throughout the house were calla lilies, roses and other flowers in abundance. The evening following the dinner was spent on music and conversation.

The invited list included Messrs. and Mesdames A. J. Visel, John Wehrly, J. J. Van Wyk, T. W. Neely, W. D. Baker, J. G. Quick, W. W. Jevenger, Theo. Winkler, I. D. Mills, F. W. Weissman, E. J. Inwood, F. N. Newell of Los Angeles, Miss Eva Newell, Miss Blanche Irvine and a Los Angeles friend assisted Mrs. Vandermast in serving.

"Helping Hand" Meeting
Fifty of the Helping Hands of the First Baptist church spent a happy afternoon together yesterday, at the hospitable home of Mrs. G. W. Minter. It was an ideal California day. The rooms were decorated with beautiful golden poppies and smilax. Mrs. G. P. Hill, chairman of the hostesses, presented, for them, an offering to the church building fund instead of providing elaborate refreshments.

The meeting was opened by the general president, Mrs. F. A. Holbrook, who read the Eighth Psalm. Mrs. M. V. Lyon offered an earnest prayer. The usual order of business, and discussions upon the church interests, led up to the social hour of privilege. This was enlivened by strains of music and readings from the Victoria. The hostess served fruitade and peanuts.

A lot purchaser in the Pacific Electric tract attempted to move an old structure on to his newly acquired land yesterday, but the other residents raised such a rumpus that he changed his mind and took it away. ## AMUSEMENTS

Della Clarke in "Introduce Me"
Reports from the places where Della Clarke's new comedy, "Introduce Me," has been presented indicate that it will be as welcome an attraction as will visit this city during the season. In reviewing the piece an exchange says:

"The biting jest which an ungrateful and vicious weather department handed this city yesterday prevented but a small crowd of theater goers from witnessing 'Introduce Me' as presented at the Academy of Music matinee and evening. This is largely to be regretted inasmuch as the show is an exceptionally clever one, well staged and carried by an admirably well-balanced cast. Miss Clarke, authoress as well as star, deserves great commendation in both capacities and her support played with Spartan indifference to adverse conditions.

Miss Clarke's acting was quite up to the considerable reputation she enjoys and her own determination infused each and every member of the cast. Not a sign of "soldiering" could be observed in either performance, which indicates splendid pluck on the part of those buffeted by a wintry fate.

Miss Clarke's role—that of the somewhat neglected wife, who, unknown to her husband, wins great literary success under the cover of a nom de plume—is a broader one than that of the Indian maiden in which we last saw her. Tenderness, vivacity, common sense, and behind all a thorough yet quite feminine efficiency, were aptly portrayed. The interpretation of the role was doubtless immensely aided from the fact that its creator was playing it, but aside from this there was ample evidence of a very thorough study of the possibilities. On proper occasions the conscientiousness with which the part was played throughout rose to genuine brilliance, showing very real emotional power—the kind that grips the audience and sweeps it out of itself.

Folks interested in the stage might as well make up their minds to keep an eye upon Miss Clarke. In "The White Squaw" she demonstrated that she has imagination, the truest sensibility, and genuine constructive talent. But "Introduce Me" is leagues in advance of the earlier effort. The imagination is surer, the sensibility more appreciative, the constructive power stronger. The situations are evolved with delightful naturalness and the lines fit them to a "T."

It goes without saying that the offering is as pure and wholesome as a spring flower.

It is a great pity that "Introduce Me" cannot double back this way before the warm weather in order that our people at large may have an opportunity to enjoy it unobstructed by a driving sleet, two inches of slush and a dangerously slippery pavement. Intrinsically the play is interesting and it contains the brightest of promise with regard to what its gifted authoress may yet have in store for her public.

At the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday matinee and evening, April 4 and 5.

"RONEY'S BOYS" IN PHILADELPHIA

When the "Roney Boys" gave a concert in Philadelphia they attended old Christ Church and were honored by being seated in George Washington's pew. Adjoining it was the pew once occupied by Betsy Ross, the maker of the first American flag. At the conclusion of the service a great-grandson of Benjamin Franklin, who still occupies the Franklin pew, took the boys in charge and showed them through the historic edifice, pointing out everything of interest. They also visited Independence Hall, Carpenter's Hall, and sang patriotic songs in the "Betsy Ross House."

builds houses and speculates in real estate, and does everything he attempts thoroughly and well. It is often remarked of him that he "makes a success of everything he undertakes." His father was a clergyman. They will be in Santa Ana April 9.

Have to Memorize Their Music

The "Roney Boys" are not allowed to take their notes upon the stage excepting only when the music is new. Every one of their concert selections, many of them intricate and difficult, has been memorized. This is not only good training for their memories, but adds greatly to the artistic effect of the boys' work. Noted educators say it is a liberal education in music, and a valuable object lesson to every young person, to hear "Roney's Boys" sing such standard music. And it sets both children and parents to thinking, and suggests the vocal possibilities that lie in the throats of boys everywhere.

RIDERS OF NOTE WITH SELLS-FLOTO

When we come to consider the remarkable equestrians who from time to time have added lustre to the circus world, it has to be admitted as a matter of course that the Stickney family hold a place second to none in the history of circus achievements.

The Sells-Floato circus, which comes here on April 16, presents amongst the other important features of its program three members of this remarkable family, namely: Emma, Emily and Robert Stickney, forming a galaxy of stars such as no circus heretofore has had the enterprise to procure.

These riders therefore need no introduction to the amusement-loving public. There is nothing in the way of bareback equitation which they do not accomplish with a grace and ease which is absolutely astonishing.

They will be seen at all the performances of the Sells-Floato circus and in addition to them might be mentioned that they are only some of the famous troupe programed, as the list also includes the Hobsons, the Lowandos, Miss Rhonda Royal, Miss Maud Burbank, Miss Irene Montgomery, Miss Lucile King and several others of lesser note.

The price of admission for the Sells-Floato circus is 25 cents, as has been their policy for the past four years.

Coughs and colds, when neglected, always lead to serious trouble of the lungs. The wisest thing to do when you have a cold that troubles you is to get a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery. You will get relief from the first dose, and finally the cough will disappear. O. H. Brown, of Meadville, Ala., writes: "My wife was down in bed with an obstinate cough, and I honestly believe had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery, she would not be living today." ## Savings Bank Deposits vs Investments

"How can I invest $1200.00 now in a savings-bank drawing Four Per Cent Interest, at practically no more risk to the principal than at present, but paying a better rate?"

Before the writer of the above withdraws the money to invest in securities, he should consider the matter very carefully. If the savings bank is a sound institution the money on deposit is already one of the very best investments that human ingenuity has yet devised for a small fund.

The bank is paying 4 per cent compound interest, but a higher rate is wanted. Four per cent in a savings bank may seem a low rate of interest; but when the safety of the investment is considered and the interest is compared with the yield of a high-grade security, it is not disproportionate.

A savings bank depositor, moreover, must not lose sight of the fact that he has something besides his interest.

He has money and it is intact in his bank.

When he buys a security he parts with the money, and he cannot reclaim it except by selling the security. When he loans the money on mortgage his funds are not available for several years.

NEW YORK PAPER HEARS FROM SANTA ANA

Local Resident Writes to His Home Publication About
Local Conditions

The Randolph (N. Y.) "Register" of recent date contains a most interesting column and a quarter letter from W. W. Seymour, whose home is in Santa Ana at 1346 C street. Under a caption in large letters appears the following: "Faith in Country Despite the Frosts. California Fruit Growers Are Setting Out More Trees. Mr. Seymour Gives Figures Showing Values of the Agricultural Products of One County—Enjoys Climate."

The article is especially noteworthy because it helps to enlighten New Yorkers as to the true facts relative to the cold snap several weeks ago. He also takes occasion to have the following printed:

More people came to Los Angeles the past year than ever before in the same time; some days there were as many as 1200 and they come from the south as well as north and the east.

Although we had the hardest freeze here this winter which has been known for many years, and which ruined a large part of the oranges, the orange show at San Bernardino last month was the finest ever held in the state. It is estimated that there was fifty carloads of fruit and a great deal was fixed up to represent street cars, railroad engines, overshot water wheels, steamboats and many other things. It certainly was the grandest thing of the kind I ever saw. San Bernardino is surrounded on three sides by mountains and the foothills were white with snow most down to the base, still it was warm and pleasant in the city.

The orange growers have faith in this country and are setting out more trees. They say they can lose the entire crop every fifth year and then be ahead of any other farm crop. I have heard of one acre of oranges for one year bringing $3000, but of course that is out of proportion to the average crop.

This is a paradise for automobile and motorcycle, as the roads are fine and the weather is favorable for using them 350 days in the year. Indications are favorable for more people to buy homes and settle here in the next two years than for the past six. This country is certainly booming and nothing outside of an earthquake can stop it.

Case Continued

The case of Sam Henderson, who pleaded guilty to robbing the home of Earl D. Gray at Anaheim recently, was continued until Thursday. Henderson will apply for probation.

OPPOSE RUSSIAN STAMPS

ODESSA, Russia, April 3.—Twenty archbishops of the state church in European Russia, have sent a petition to the holy synod against the use of the imperial portrait on the new postage stamps, in commemoration of the three hundredth anniversary of the accession of the Romanoff dynasty. The petitioners say that it is a degradation of the august dignity of the Emperor. It is said that the stamps bearing the Czar's likeness will be withdrawn.

APPROVE HUNGARIAN REFORM

BUDAPEST, Hungary, April 3.—The government's electoral reform bill, by which it is proposed to increase the number of voters by 800,000, has now been approved by the special committee, to which it was referred by the lower house of the Diet.

NORTHWEST CAR MOVEMENT

SEATTLE, April 3.—Car movements in Pacific Northwest district for past eight months were 849,797 cars, compared with 792,396 for corresponding period last year, a gain of about 7 per cent.

HILLES GOES INTO BUSINESS

NEW YORK, April 3.—Charles D. Hilles, formerly secretary to President Taft, entered actively into the insurance business on Thursday. Mr. Hilles will retain the chairmanship of the Republican National committee.
